Marquis Los Cabos Named a Top Resort
In Condé Nast Traveler 2010 Readers' Choice Awards

Los Cabos, Mexico (November 16, 2010) - Marquis Los Cabos, the all-suite beachfront resort located on the southernmost point of the Baja California peninsula, was named one of the “Top Resorts” in Mexico by Condé Nast Traveler magazine readers in its 2010 Reader’s Choice Awards. In Condé Nast’s discerning annual survey, the magazine’s readers recognize the world’s premium properties based on food/dining, location, overall design, rooms and service.

“I am delighted to acknowledge the award on behalf of our dedicated, hard-working staff, who have a passion for detail that enhances each visitor’s stay. Special gratitude goes as well to our loyal guests who have supported Marquis Los Cabos since our opening,” said Ella Messerli, general manager of Marquis Los Cabos.

Outstanding features that helped Marquis Los Cabos earn its top status include a 15,000 square foot holistic spa and fitness center, the only member of Leading Spas of the World in Los Cabos; an executive chef with a Michelin pedigree presiding over three diverse restaurants including Five Star Diamond winner Canto del Mar, and an extensive Latin American art collection from well-known Mexican artists Fernando Garrido and Jorge Marin and Colombian artist Ana Mercedes Hoyos. Guests find 40 pools on property including a dramatic 36-foot waterfall cascading from the lobby and two serpentine infinity pools overlooking the Sea of Cortes. All guest suites feature ocean-view balconies, Bulgari amenities, imported Frette linens, goose-down comforters and a hydro-massage bathtub with separate shower room.

The 237-suite Marquis Los Cabos Resort is a member of the prestigious Leading Hotels of the World. The beachfront property is located in the “Cabo Real” section of Los Cabos, 18 miles from the airport and only six miles from San Jose del Cabo.
