Groups Give Back at Los Cabos “Hotel with a Heart”

For Every $7 Spent on F & B at the Marquis Los Cabos, $1 is Donated to Charity

Los Cabos, Mexico (July 21, 2009) – One dollar of every seven spent on food & beverage will be given to a charity of a group’s choice, part of the Marquis Los Cabos resort’s new “Hotel with a Heart” initiative. Groups also can choose to allocate the monies toward a choice of local charities including The Red Cross, Los Cabos Children Foundation and Liga Mac. This initiative is for groups of ten rooms or more.

“During this stressful economic time, the Marquis Los Cabos thought it was especially important to give our guests an opportunity to help those in need, whether at home or abroad,” said General Manager Ella Messerli.

Just featured in National Geographic Traveler’s “Hotels with a Heart,” the Marquis Los Cabos also donates five percent of the hotel’s annual revenue for the staff’s education and healthcare in its Marquis University. Since 2003, the resort has helped on average 20 employees a year obtain primary schooling and bachelor degrees.

With indoor convention space large enough to fit up to 500 guests and beachside Astronomy Nights with local naturalists and live music, Marquis Los Cabos is a perfect location to hold corporate events, family gatherings, social getaways, or more. Special group rates are available. For reservations, please call 1-877-238-9399 and ask about our incentive credit for charity.
