New Spa Director Highlights Artisanal Treatments
At Re-envisioned Holistic Spa Marquis,
Los Cabos' Only Member of *Leading Spas of the World

Los Cabos, Mexico (February 23, 2010) – Bringing with her a comprehensive background in a variety of organic spa therapies and alternative medicine, Margarita Valderrama was recently appointed Spa Director of the newly re-envisioned Spa Marquis. The spa, Los Cabos' only member of Leading Spas of the World, now offers a wide variety of both traditional holistic and alternative treatments using products derived from Mother Earth's vital elements – clay, salt, essential oils, seaweed and herbal medicine among others.

Valderrama has developed new gourmet treatment packages which highlight the union of the five elements – earth, water, fire, metal and wood. Included are 80-minute Café Ole, Chocolate and Grapes Experiences that begin with an exfoliation of natural sugar or salt followed by a body cocoon of the respective therapeutic ingredient. An Aphrodisiacs Experience (80 min/$390) performed in-suite, anti-aging "Queen of Hungary" Experience and Aromatic & Therapeutic Experience (both 80 min/$180) top off the menu.

Valderrama joins Spa Marquis after most recently serving 10 years as Spa Director of the Serenity Medical Spa in San José del Cabo. She has also been a consultant for the Institute of Investigation in Medical Aesthetic, Nutrition & Anti-Aging in Morelos, Mexico in addition to several other health and skin care departments of Los Cabos' spas. A member of the Well Being Integral Center, S.C., Valderrama gives myriad seminars and conferences on alternative medicine and body work technique; personal development, feminine energy, Reiki and spiritual sexuality, and many other aspects of wellness. Valderrama received a distinguished international education in spa therapies from the International Aroma & Spa Therapy School in Barcelona, Center of Well Being of Dr. Deepak Chopra in San Diego, CA and Usui School in Mexico.

Valderrama can be contacted at 1.877.238.9399 or mvalderrama@marquisloscabos.com.
